NO. 16

The project "Equality through Difference. Roma Women's Access on the Labor Market" promotes social inclusion of Roma women and young individuals by acknowledging their particular needs and interests. It is funded by the European Social Fund, Operational Program for Human Resources Development 2007 -2013. "Invest in people!" Priority axis and domain field "Equal opportunities and respect."

The project runs for three years, starting in November 2008. The following partner organizations contribute to its implementation: Roma Women's Association "For Our Children" from Timisoara, Desire Foundation from Cluj, Parudimos Association from Timisoara, National Agency for Roma, the Municipality of Timisoara, Autonomy Foundation (Budapest).

Project activities take place on local, multiregional, national and transnational levels.

Some activities are informative (provide information for Roma communities, or sensitize public awareness on problems encountered by Roma in the domain of labor). Other activities formative (aiming to have a direct impact on target groups we work with, and on the degree our society knows and acknowledges the reality of ethnic and gender discrimination, and the importance of eliminating it. Research and social intervention mutually supports each other.

Newsletter No. 16 presents information about the activity 1.4. Collaboration with ANES / COJES, activity 4.4. Nevi Sara Kali, activity 6.3. Public Debates Activitaty 6.3. Public debates Public debates activity aims to promote the project results through meetings organized in four regions, where representatives of local authorities, mass media and NGOs will be invited. At these events the publications of the project were distributed. The implementation of the activity began in May with drafting a letter to ANR, on the organization of public debates in Bucharest and drafting a letter of invitation for this debate.
